

Report: Field trip Visit at construction site of R.C.C bridge over Aie river under Chirang District
9th November 2019

A field trip was organized for the under graduate students of B.Tech (Civil Engineering) of Bineswar Brahma Engineering College, Kokrajhar to a construction site of R.C.C bridge over river Aie at aie-powali under Chirang District. The trip was started at 11 am from Bineswar Brahma Engineering College, Kokrajhar.

Fig. 1. Photo of students and faculty travelling with the bus

After travelling nearly 4 hours towards the Indo-Bhutan boarder, the destination was reached at 3 PM and the students cross river to reach the camp.

Fig. 2. Photo of the students and faculty crossing the river to reach the camp

The officer from the construction company Mr. Achinta Narzary, Mr. Suddho Basumatary and his officers present and interacted with the students (Fig. 3). Thereafter the students were oriented by site engineer Mr. Diganta Halai.

Fig. 3. Photo of (a) Students at the camp and (b) Students with site engineer clearing the doubt.

The students were asked to explore all the engineering prospects and construction challenges during these site site.

Fig. 4. Photo of (a) Students exploring the under construction site (b) Students discussing

The visit also helps the students to understand the challenges in construction site; it has given insight about the resource and project management.

Fig.5. Photo of the students and faculty as group photo session at the construction site

Course coordinator

Faculty In charge

Faculty In charge